

The ScreenPlay 7200 home cinema projector

What a big screen TV wants to be when it grows up.

With the new ScreenPlay 7200 digital projector from InFocus, you're not just in the theater – you're part of the movie. You'll enjoy breathtaking image quality. Unrivaled connectivity. Simplified installation. With no compromise in the size or image. You'll project movies just like you saw in the movie theater. You may even ask the theater for your money back.

To experience movies, sports, video games, the Internet (and more) in digital clarity that will engulf your senses, call 1-877-411-PLAY or visit www.infocushome.com. Life-sized is an understatement.
